Goal:
Teachers will leave the workshop confident to create and lead a Destination Imagination team within their classroom.

So that teachers

- Explore 21st century teaching strategies including the 4C's (Creativity, Collaboration, Communication, Critical Thinking) and implement them through the Destination Imagination Team Challenge format.

So that students....

- Develop 21st Century skills in a fun and engaging atmosphere.

Overview:
This workshop is for staff members that are willing to facilitate the development of a team to participate in the DI DIVISION TEAM CHALLENGE 2015 (May 2015). The DI DTC 2015 is an event that will be held specifically for teams that have worked together throughout the year. Staffers will learn about what it takes to be a team leader and the components of the Destination Imagination resources.
Each workshop participant will be given the recommended challenges, necessary supplies, and support needed to prepare their team during the year for the DI DTC 2015 to be held in May, 2015.

This workshop is directly linked to the Destination Imagination classroom edition.

For more information or to find out if this is right for you and your students please contact Patricia Yeske.
